some further cause for satisfaction in the fact, which seems evident from the brief telegram received, that the attempted suicide was not the outcome of any diabolical conspiracy. The assassin was probably a simpleton of the wretched man who caused the death of President GARFIELD, but happily for England, the aim of the London criminal was less accurate than that of his American prototype.

Although the Bill to restrict Chinese immigration into the United States has been reported and will probably soon become law, the antipathy of the Californians to the Chinese appears unabated. So at least we judge from the tenor of the telegram received on Saturday by the Tang Wah Hospital Committee. The agitation industriously set in motion by KERNET and his gang of roughs has never totally subsided; the Irish labourers cannot forgive the Chinese man's thrift, industry, and self-helpfulness; in the presence of such bitter hostility to the Chinese it is little to be wondered at that it is only the beginning of a great movement to enter the States, we are glad to note that a new field has been opened to Chinese labour, where we trust it will be better appreciated. Large numbers of Chinese are now leaving for Portland, Oregon, their ultimate destination being British Columbia, where they will be employed in the construction of the new Canadian Trans-Pacific Railway. This great work, which will take several years to complete, cannot fail to have a great influence on the fortunes of the Dominion, as it will hasten the development of its resources, agricultural and mineral. As the population is sparse and likely to be so for the next decades, we should imagine there will be a good field for Chinese labour in British Columbia and Vancouver Island. We only hope that the Caucasian population there will not prove as ungenerous as the Californians, or perhaps it would be more just to say the reverse—that the control of the elections there. To the industry of Chinese immigrants in largely due the present prosperity of San Francisco, but its inhabitants, conveniently forgetting those who labour it was that linked the city with the Eastern States and hurried forward its development, have kicked away the bridge that carried them over, and would fain bury all obligations in oblivion.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. The left edge of the page shows the binding structure, including what appears to be a vertical crease or fold line. The overall tone is warm and off-white.
